

necessary knowledge; but anyone who loves God is known by him. Hence, as to the eating of food offered to idols, we know that "no idol in the world really exists," and that "there is no God but one." Indeed, even though there may be so-called gods in heaven or on earth-- as in fact there are many gods and many lords-- yet for us there is one God, the Father, from whom are all things and for whom we exist, and one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom are all things and through whom we exist.

It is not everyone, however, who has this knowledge. Since some have become so accustomed to idols until now, they still think of the food they eat as food offered to an idol; and their conscience, being weak, is defiled. "Food will not bring us close to God." We are no worse off if we do not eat, and no better off if we do. But take care that this liberty of yours does not somehow become a stumbling block to the weak. For if others see you, who possess knowledge, eating in the temple of an idol, might they not, since their conscience is weak, be encouraged to the point of eating food sacrificed to idols? So by your knowledge those weak believers for whom Christ died are destroyed. But when you thus sin against members of your family, and wound their conscience when it is weak, you sin against Christ. Therefore, if food is a cause of their falling, I will never eat meat, so that I may not cause one of them to fall.

The Holy Gospel: Mark 1:21 - 28

Presider: The Holy Gospel according to Mark

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus and his disciples went to Capernaum; and when the sabbath came, he entered the synagogue and taught. They were astounded at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes. Just then there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit, and he cried out, "What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are, the Holy One of God." But Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Be silent, and come out of him!" And the unclean spirit, convulsing him and crying with a loud voice, came out of him. They were all amazed, and they kept on asking one another, "What is this? A new teaching-- with authority! He commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey him." At once his fame began to spread throughout the surrounding region of Galilee.

QUIET MORNING – FEBRUARY 4

Do you need some time for prayer and reflection? Would it help you to have someone guide you through this experience? On Saturday, February 4, from 9 a.m. to noon, we will have a Quiet Morning at St. Luke's. Bonnie Matthaideess, a certified spiritual director, will be our retreat leader.

The theme will be:

"That Christ may live in your hearts through faith."

Ephesians 3:17

We will be pondering and praying with the following:

What does the "Presence of God Dwelling in Our Hearts" mean?

How does the Word continue to dwell among us?

What difference does this make?

Bonnie received her training at Haden Institute in Flat Rock, NC. She is also a certified prayer guide in Ignatian Spiritual Exercises at Mercy Prayer Center in Rochester. It is important that we have an approximate headcount for Bonnie, so if you plan to attend, please call the church office, 223-2796.

What role does economics play in the life of people of faith?

The moral life of a nation? The interaction of a nation like the US on the world stage?

Come, listen, and share with great discussion with others.

Children and Youth Program in Undercroft

Youths aged 5-17 are invited to participate in a production of the Genesis story of Joseph. Adults are also needed to help with scenery, costumes, directing, etc. This story was popularized in the musical "Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat", and our production will use music from that show. Speaking and musical roles are available for everyone. Roles will be assigned according to ability.

The performance will occur on Sunday, April 1 (Palm Sunday) at 5:00 p.m. after a potluck dinner. Contact Gary Gocek, 223-3826, gary@gocek.org, if you have questions about the Youth Program and watch for signup sheets at the church.
